At the Camp

Enjoy Golu and Molu's camp by the pond through this fun-filled story. They go with their mom and dad for the camp. At the camp while mom and dad set up a beautiful silk tent, Golu and Molu cool themselves by jumping into the pond for a swim. To add to their fun, they get onto a wooden ramp and float in the pond. In a turn of events the ramp hits a rock and Golu falls off into the water. They enjoy as Golu grabs Molu's hand to get back onto the ramp but Molu falls off into the pond too. They both do not get back onto the ramp but hold it and swim back to mom and dad. Dad is standing by the pond with his hand held out to help them back up. It gets dim so mom lights up a lamp while they all rest in the beautiful silk tent after a joyful day.

1. How many people go for the camp?
2. How do mom and dad set up the tent?
3. How does Molu have a fall?
4. Can you give a word from the story that rhymes with camp?
5. Can you think of another end to the story after Golu and Molu get onto the ramp in the pond?
